

Free & Reduced Meal Application Information

Apply for free or reduced-price meals today!

As we welcome students back for the new school year, we want to remind you about the benefit of school meals, which continue to be some of the healthiest meal options for students. Our goal is to continue supporting all students and families by ensuring those who need free meals at school continue to receive them. Families can qualify for free or reduced-price meals based on household income by submitting a meal application.

Check out answers to frequently asked questions about free or reduced-price school meals and the application process below and apply today!

You can apply any time during the year.

Not ready to apply at the beginning of the year? Financial status changes mid-way through the semester? Not a problem. The application can be filled out at any point and students status will be updated after the application gets processed. It's never too late!

The process is completely confidential.

You can trust that all of your information will remain confidential and only be used for determining eligibility for school meals. Once a student is approved for free or reduced-price meals, their status will also remain confidential so no student can be identified or singled out.

You'll save time and money!

The application only takes a few minutes to complete and is completely free. If you qualify, your student could be eligible for free or reduced-price school meals. No need to spend money on lunch boxes or time preparing bagged lunches!

All students regardless of free, reduced, or paid status are offered the same nutritious meal options to choose from.

The price of the meal is the ONLY thing that is reduced, all students are offered the same nutritious meal options to choose from.

The application for school year 24-25 can be filled out by visiting www.mymealtime.com

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or marital or marital-like status. Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication (such as Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible State or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TAD007. Contact us at (202) 725-2100 (voice and TDD) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. To file a program discrimination complaint, a complainant must complete a Form 1023-2021, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at <http://www.aphis.usda.gov/indiancountry/indiancountry2021>, www.aphis.usda.gov/indiancountry/indiancountry2021, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. This proposed AD-2027 form is subject to the conditions to USDA's final U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW Washington, DC 20250-9400 or the (800) 245-6882 or (202) 690-7342, or email: program.intake@ndis.gov.
